

About the Kushibiki Award

The Kushibiki Award of the College of Law and Politics of Rikkyo University is a scholarship funded by the donations to Rikkyo Gakuin made by an alumnus of this university, Mr. Hironori Kushibiki. The purpose of this award is to encourage the academic work of students of the College of Law and Politics who study abroad at a partner institution based on the student exchange programs of Rikkyo University of undergraduate students in the third year. The award is given to the most excellent student based on the grades by the second spring semester.

Application requirements: A student of the College of Law and Politics who is enrolled for the second year of undergraduate studies at the time of application and applies to study abroad at a partner institution. In the absence of an applicant, the Kushibiki Award for the academic year will be "Not applicable."

Number of selected persons: One

Selection: In principle, the selection process is determined by document screening.

Scholarship amount: 500,000 yen (grant)