

To all students of the Graduate School of Intercultural Communication

Graduate School of Intercultural Communication

Notification regarding the Graduate School's Counseling Channels

In addition to assigning academic advisors to all students, the Graduate School of Intercultural Communication has established a counseling framework that responds to the various needs of our students. If you have any problems or concerns regarding university life that you wish to talk about, please do not hesitate to use whichever of the counseling channels outlined below feels the most approachable for you. Contact details for each member of staff can also be found on the R Guide.

|   |                |  |
|---|----------------|--|
| Dean  | MORI Satomi    | Issues regarding studies and courses, issues regarding career path, concerns about student life other than the above |
| Chair of master's and doctoral programs                               | MOROOKA Junya  |  |
| College Administration Office, Section 4                              | McKim Hall 6F  |  |
| Academic Affairs Office   | Tucker Hall 1F | Issues regarding studies and courses   |
| Staff member of the Center for Human Rights and Harassment Prevention | IKEDA Nobuko   | Issues concerning harassment on campus   |

Other Channels Within the University:

◆ Center for Human Rights and Harassment Prevention

Students who have experienced or witnessed what they think might be harassment on campus should contact the Center.

Location: Ikebukuro Campus Tucker Hall Annex 2F

Contact: 03-3985-3192 (phone), jinken@rikkyo.ac.jp (email)

URL: https://portal.rikkyo.ac.jp/human\_rights

(English information will be available to click "English" button at the top of the webpage.)

◆ Student Counseling Center

The Student Counseling Center has experienced staff and specialist counselors who can provide counseling regarding a range of concerns, including issues related to interpersonal relationships, personality, academic life, and career paths. It also offers programs that can help students improve interpersonal relationships and build a more enjoyable university life.

Location: Ikebukuro Campus, next to Williams Hall

Contact: 03-3985-2653 (phone)

URL: <https://portal.rikkyo.ac.jp/counseling>

(English information will be available to click “English” button at the top of the webpage.)